We will pite up a big vote here and overcome the Re publican up-State majority."

-RICHARD CROKER.

Richard Croker has left no possible excuse to any one to doubt his sincerity is the campaign or to question his deter mination to give Bryan the full support of Tammany Hall.

In a circular letter to the Assembly district leaders from Tammany Hall where he opened court this morning and announced that he would personally he expects to give Bryan a tremendous majority in the county of New York. The letter says it is issued "by Mr loker's order, and it notifies the leaders to get up counter district demon-strations to offset the Roosevelt affairand between the lines tells the leader t is up to them and they will be held responsible for their districts.

Mr. Croker thus stakes his politica reputation and possibly his leadership the result at the polls. Here is the letter to each

"Pursuant to instructions from M Croker, the usual mass-meeting Tammany Hall in the last week of the campaign, will not be held this the campaign, will not be held this year. Instead Saturday night, Nov. 3, will be set apart in each district as Tammany night. And it is desired that you bring about the combined effort of all Democratic clubs and associations in your district for a final rally in your Assembly Destrict at the headquarters on that night. (Signed)

"MAURICE B. BLUMENTHAL,

"Chairman Speakers Committee," Richard Croker moved his headquarters from Senator Murphy's room in the Hoffman House to the little back office at Tammany Hall this morning and there the Assembly district leaders visited him.

"I shall be here every morning at 10 o'clock from now until Election Day," said the big chief. "And that's ail I'll say for publication," he added.

Tom Smith's executive committee was just across the lobby, in the west committee room, and it may be said that the Tammany campaign is really and truly beruin.

Cheers for Bryan Greet the Governor at Nyack and Newburg.

Worrying Questions Hurled at Him-Hot Attack on Croker.

Many Bryan cheers greeted Roosevelt at West Nyack and Newburg, where he made speeches to-day.

At Newburg the Bryan sentiment was particularly in evidence. There were many more pictures of Odell than of the Governor.

More worrying questions were hurled at Roosevelt at onduct the campaign. Croker says that Nyack than met Bryan on his whole tour of the State.

A fierce attack on Bryan and Croker marked the first speech of Gov. Roosevelt at West Nyack to-day on his stumping tour of the State.

"Hurrah for Bryan!" cried a listener. "Why don't you cheer for Altgeld or Aguinaldo?" cried the Governor.

"Stamp out Bryanism and Crokerism," he shouted, and asked if they wanted the State reduced to the level of iniquity of the city of New York.

He declared it would be a "shame and disgrace" to elect Bryan, and declared Tammany Hail fattened on blackmailing vice.
